

New state of the art school campus open in Tewkesbury

The opening was a great success

NEWS

By Kim Horton - Senior Reporter
06:00, 5 Nov 2024

A new school in Tewkesbury has officially opened after two and a half years building the state-of-the-art campus. The new campus will host 142 students and 27 members of staff and replaces OneSchool Global's former campus in Gloucester. (Image: OneSchool Global)

A new school in Tewkesbury has officially opened after two-and-a-half-years of building the state-of-the-art campus. It will host 142 students and 27 members of staff and replaces OneSchool Global's former campus in Gloucester.

The opening of the campus was celebrated with a ribbon cutting ceremony welcoming students to their new school, followed by speeches from their principals. The new building which has a comprehensive fit-out programme supported by a the school community, with parents and volunteers getting involved to prepare the new campus for the students.

Newly-appointed principal Chris Reynolds was joined by regional principal Sarah Bennett and a number of OneSchool Global's Year 13 students to cut the ribbons. They were able to present the modern facilities on the day to the students which range from Year 3 to Year 13.

The campus in Tewkesbury has a technology-rich learning environment equipped with a range of Learning Zones with a variety of resources and seating options to enable students to select the learning space most suited to the work they are undertaking. (Image: OneSchool Global)

Mr Reynolds said: "It was excellent to be able to finally welcome the students and give thanks to all the members of the wider community who have worked so hard with us to deliver a wonderful learning environment for both students and teachers.

A new OneSchool Global campus in Tewkesbury has officially opened after two and a half years building the educational setting. (Image: OneSchool Global)

“At OneSchool Global, we pride ourselves on delivering the best learning outcomes for our students, and recruiting and developing high-quality teachers is a crucial aspect of this. We believe our innovative approach to learning sets us apart and we are excited to have a number of new positions available to welcome new teachers into the OSG network.”

The new OneSchool Global campus school in Tewkesbury has officially opened. (Image: OneSchool Global)

Ms Bennett said: “We are always thrilled by the opening of new campuses in our network, to continue to provide our students and teachers with leading-edge learning facilities and educational technology. It has been fantastic to see the school community so actively involved in the refurbishments and in getting the campus to where it is today, and we want to thank them for all their efforts.

“At OneSchool Global we develop ‘life-ready’ students who have a crucial set of transferable skills that will help them succeed in our rapidly changing world, and we are excited to see the students in Tewkesbury progress and flourish in their new campus.”

OneSchool Global, has 24 campuses across the UK and is attended by children from the Plymouth Brethren Christian Church. It follows a ‘Learning to Learn’ framework, where students are supported by teachers to take ownership of their learning and develop the skills they need for self-direction in their learning.

To support this framework, the campus in Tewkesbury has a technology-rich learning environment equipped with a range of Learning Zones with a variety of resources and seating options to enable students to select the learning space most suited to the work they are undertaking.